It is an open mind which can receive the indoctrination of life and use it for the humanity. An educational institute's priority should be to leave the pupils with open minds to explore the possibilities around not just to feed them with facts. With ample chances to foster creativity in students at all levels, the school tries to nurture each talent in its stress free ambience. Our unique approach to education and philanthropic attitude to social causes have brought us many recognitions of international and national fame. We are an insatiable team, aspiring more and more. And I am sure with such a brilliant team we can dream for the impossible.

All the best to the team in their endeavour.

Ram Awatar Agarwalla

PARENTS

Education is no longer confined to the four corners of a classroom. Although our younger daughter was already enrolled in a reputed school in Guwahati for the past eight years, we felt that the necessary spark to excel in life was missing. And, it was with a lot of trepidation and thought that we finally decided to shift her to DPS Guwahati.

Having come to know about the unique teaching methodology in DPS, the change in school was done in order to inculcate in her the rights and responsibilities of a model citizen and to infuse her with the intellectual and ethical capacity to pursue her own interests and to develop judgment and character. Over the last few months, DPS Guwahati has managed to bring out the best in her not only in terms of academic excellence but in the field of sports and music too. From the experiences of the past few months, we as parents have felt that our decision to effect a change of schools stand vindicated. I am sure that in the coming years, our daughter will surely be groomed the DPS way and she will be adequately equipped to lead an independent life blessed with knowledge, acumen and diligence.

I have no doubt that in the years to come; DPS will continue to attract the finest talents that are available not only in this part of the country but from other regions as well.

The association with DPS Guwahati has been for long 12yrs now. When I sit back and recapitulate my past I see a young couple with two little kids just about to start their children's academic adventure trying to make sense of the myriad requirements of their loved little ones in a complex world. Having seen and assessed many institutes and academic platforms we could make out at the first look that this was the place we would choose our kids to be in to go through their childhood journey.

All these 12yrs of my association I have seen the growth of the institute with strong and bold policies for the overall development of a child from a toddler to a teenager trying to support them and nourish them and bring out their individual best.

And here I am now with two teenage kids of whom I am proud of and the credit of it fully goes to the academic environment of the school as a whole and the caring teachers in particular.

As parents we were confused in selecting a good school for our two daughters at class 1 and PG I level. Although here were many options, various factors were in our mind including better learning process, friendly teachers, good discipline and the enjoyable environment for kids. After some review of the available option, we selected DPS Guwahati. From day one, the kids were always eager to go to school. They could quickly adjust very well with the new environment in school, courtesy the friendly teachers and staff. The RFID based messaging system for kids boarding of bus, arrival at school, departure from school, de-boarding from bus keeps us at ease.

The school is taking keen interest in overall development of children in the form of extracurricular activities like sports, swimming etc. Besides doing a wonderful job in nurturing the kids, involvement of family members in the form of celebrations like Grandparents Day was exemplary as for many kids it was a good learning experience. We are hopeful, the school will emerge even better in coming days.

My two year journey in Delhi Public School Guwahati has been an amazing one. The sprawling campus of the school is so vast that on the very first day, I lost my way to my classroom from the playground. The school gave me the golden opportunity to be its Head Boy and become a part of an unbelievable group of students whom I consider to be my family.

Coming to a city for my higher studies and then becoming the school Head Boy led me to a wonderful journey of learning and growth. Delhi Public School Guwahati has given me all that I can ever ask for. My teachers helped me in every possible way to bring the best out of me. I am truly grateful for their love and support.

All I want to tell my readers, in the words of Frederick Schiller Faust, is that "There's a giant asleep within every man. When that giant awakes, miracles happen." And that's what my teachers did here.

From class I to the final stage of school life, I've been a part of this institution for 12 years now and the journey has been a saga of experiences and opportunities. Dps Guwahati has been that platform which has provided me a plethora of opportunities in every field, starting from academics to cultural, and has thus groomed and nurtured me in all possible ways. I remember the time when I was a shy girl who was scared of public interaction but it now seems like a matter of the distant past as today I am able to stand with more wisdom and confidence. The amount of support that the teachers give here is unparalleled and their readiness to help and guide at every step has helped me grow. I'm thankful to this institution for all that it has given me.

The last 12 years have been a journey for sure. There have been ups and downs all along the way but there has also been wonderful surprises and discoveries that I never would've experienced if it wasn't for all the people and instances I've encountered, much of which I have to thank this institution for. It has provided with a wonderful faculty, with brilliant teachers whose endless patience, love and moral support, and belief in me, has helped me reach where I am today. It has never compromised with my education at any instant—providing with endless opportunities, not just academic but extra-curricular as well, to grasp knowledge at its very roots. I am very grateful and honored to call myself a Dipsite.

My journey to Delhi Public School, Guwahati commenced in 2013, when I joined in Class 6 as a hosteller with a feeling of uncertainty and a fair amount of hesitation, but now I find myself to be a responsible and an independent person with confidence to take up any sort of challenges in life. The school has provided me with a lot of opportunities to explore myself and the hostel has taught me the lesson of togetherness. The teachers and the counseling team here are supportive and approachable.

The hostel has a friendly environment with comfortable ambience where children can learn and grow. It has become another family for me which I'll certainly miss. Now, as I'm at the far end of my school life in DPSCG, it is hard to accept the fact that I would leave this school forever but somewhere back in my mind, I realize that I'll always be a member of the DPS Clan.

THANK YOU DPS, GUWAHATI for changing my attitude from unwillingness to willingness!!!
